

WILC (Westchester Independent Living Center), The Autism Project - F.L.O.S & Sight & Sound
Productions/G.B.T.C., LTD
Present:

We are Family . . . Let's Talk
A Disability Awareness Series

Saturday, November 17, 2018 from 9:30 AM - 4:00 PM
Yonkers Riverfront Library
1 Larkin Plaza, Yonkers, NY 10701

As part of this series we will be hosting two panel discussions (Parent and Sibling) and a Presentation by the Justice Center.

The Panelists will discuss what it was like raising a child with special needs, what worked, what didn't and what they wish they could have told their younger selves. The sibling panel will focus on what it was like growing up with a sibling with special needs. The Justice Center will present on the Center's Mission and its Function.

The following parents will be speaking during the parent panel:
Willie Mae Goodman - Willowbrook Class Parent & President
Gouverneur Parents Association
Cristina Lee - Board Member of Grow
DaQueen Monroe - Founder of the Autism Project
Adrienne Arkontaky, Esq. - Vice President & Managing Attorney, Cuddy

Law Firm

Kathy Abramson - Supervisor Family Peer Advocates, Mental Health Association of Rockland County

Dee Levy Director of Individual & Family Support Unit , & Jaimie Quinones Advocate, Individual & Family Support Unit, from the Justice Center for the Protection of People with Special Needs, will present on the mission and function of the Justice Center.

The following siblings will be speaking during the sibling panel:
Matt Fascaldi, Stacy Osburn, José Riviera, & Aysesha Weber

Please register HERE

By providing information through this registration link, it allows for us to continue providing free informational programs to the community. Thank you!

This workshop is co-sponsored by The Autism Project - F.L.O.S., Sight & Sound Productions/ G.B.T.C., LTD and Westchester Independent Living Center's (WILC) Parent Training and Information Center (PTIC). WILC is a Core Community Partner funded by a contract with Starbridge Services, Inc. in Rochester, NY through its PTIC grant from the United States Department of Education (H328M110020).

