We are now living without theater, sports, concerts, toilet paper, studio audiences, school, going into work, eating out, movies ... connecting with people in person.

The Westchester Independent Living Center (WILC) invites you to join our live, online group to share and listen to our experiences about the current Coronavirus Pandemic from one of the most safe places we all might know right now - at home with our phone, tablet, and/or computer at our fingertips.

Working as an advocate, and mutual supporter and educator continually proves that sharing with and understanding each other usually reduces, and prevents further, the harm caused by times like these.

WILC will hold our “Preventative Support” group on Tuesdays and Fridays from 2:30pm - 4pm.

Click this link and log on as a guest if you'd like to connect with us:
