

Are you having trouble managing your finances during Covid-19?
or
Do you want to learn how to use Social Media?

Please join WILC Minority Outreach workshop

hosted by:
James Malloy

The Minority Outreach program is working remotely to provide ongoing service during this time of crisis. Due to COVID-19 and the “Stay Home” social distancing risk factors, we will be conducting our Introduction to Banking & Finance and Social Media Awareness program via Zoom Meetings. MOP Specialist James Malloy will hold our workshops on the 17th, and 19th of November from 1pm to 3pm.

All workshops are one day, 2 hours each. A touch tone landline, Wi-fi or internet service and a smart phone, tablet or a desktop computer will be required to join. Although a camera is not required, your interaction and participation is needed to complete. An intake form needs to be filled out to attend the workshop. Introduction to Banking & Finance - Tuesday, 11/17/2020 from 1pm-3pm

You will learn the basics of financial management skills focusing on credit building, banking procedures, savings tips and more. You will also learn how to read and understand a credit report, balance a check book and calculate a budget.

Social Media Awareness – Thursday, 11/19/2020 from 1pm-3pm

You will learn how to properly use Social Media Awareness. I will breakdown the good, the bad and the ugly sides of social media and how to be aware the fast-moving trends of technology.

Below is your zoom sign in link. The room will be open 10 min before workshop is conducted.
